..... Call for Proposals

*An Inclusive Vision for Teacher Education:
Exploring Issues of Engagement*

Gideon Putnam Resort
Saratoga Springs, NY

We encourage presentations that reflect the Fall Conference theme, “An inclusive vision for teacher education: Exploring issues of engagement,” in any of the following strand areas:

- Engaging multiple stakeholders
- Innovative pedagogical practices
- Assessment and outcomes
- Partnerships
- Inclusive education
- Teacher retention

Proposal Information

Types of Proposals

PAPER: Paper sessions provide an opportunity to present research and/or practice focused on the conference theme.

POSTER SESSION: Posters offer the opportunity to present a topic in display form rather than as a formal oral presentation.

ROUNDTABLE: Roundtable sessions offer opportunities to obtain insights and suggestions from colleagues in an informal, interactive format.

Only electronic submissions will be accepted for the Fall 2010 Conference

For each proposal submitted electronically, authors must submit the following documents in Microsoft Word:

- A summary sheet containing (1) the name of a school/college affiliation, preferred address, preferred telephone number and e-mail address of each author; (2) format appropriate for the presentation (paper session, roundtable, or poster session); (3) conference strand on which the proposal is focused; and (4) the presentation title and a 50-word summary of the presentation suitable for inclusion in the Conference program.
- An anonymous, clearly titled abstract of no more than 250 words for blind review.
- Submit materials to: jadams@sjfc.edu

The deadline for submitting proposals is Friday, August 20, 2010.

Authors with proposals accepted for presentation will be notified by Monday, September 15, 2010.

All presenters must be paid registrants of the fall conference.

The NYSATE/NYACTE Fall 2010 Conference Registration Form will be available on the NYACTE website—www.nyacte.org.
